PLANNING

YOUR BUDGET, ON ONE PAGE

Prices change too fast for a printed guide, so here is a worksheet instead. Fill in your own figures from the bookings you make.

	Per day		× days		Total
Sleeping Motels, hotels, campgrounds		×		=
Fuel or charging About 2,300 miles plus detours		×		=
Food Breakfast, lunch, dinner, pie		×		=
Entry fees Museums, parks, caverns, tours		×		=
Souvenirs You will buy a sign. Everyone does.		×		=
Car rental Including any one-way fee		×		=
Flights or trains Getting to the start and home		×		=
Insurance and extras Travel insurance, parking, tolls		×		=
Trip total

SAVE ON BEDS

Classic motels are often cheaper than chains, and far more fun. Book directly: small motels may not appear on booking sites.

SAVE ON FUEL

Fuel is often cheapest away from interstate exits. Fill up in towns.

FREE STOPS

Many of the best stops are free: the Pontiac museum, Chain of Rocks Bridge, the visitor centers, every painted shield.

The Motel Safari, Tucumcari, New Mexico. Photo: Ross Griff · CC BY 2.0